

AveXis Announces Pricing of Public Offering of Common Stock

January 17, 2018

CHICAGO, Jan. 16, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- AveXis, Inc. (NASDAQ:AVXS) today announced the pricing of an underwritten public offering of 3,921,600 shares of its common stock at a public offering price of $102.00 per share, before underwriting discounts and commissions. The net proceeds to AveXis from the offering, after deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by AveXis, are expected to be approximately $375.5 million. The offering is expected to close on or about January 19, 2018, subject to customary closing conditions. In addition, AveXis has granted the underwriters a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 588,240 shares of common stock at the public offering price, less the underwriting discounts and commissions.

AveXis intends to use its existing cash and cash equivalents and the net proceeds of the offering to fund its research, manufacturing and clinical activities to support its programs in SMA, Rett syndrome and ALS, to fund its pre-commercial activities, including medical affairs, development of commercial initiatives for the potential launch of AVXS-101 and licensing activities, and for general corporate purposes and working capital.

Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC, Jefferies LLC and BofA Merrill Lynch are acting as joint book-running managers. BMO Capital Markets Corp. is acting as lead manager.

The offering is being made pursuant to a shelf registration statement on Form S-3 that was filed by AveXis with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and became automatically effective on March 17, 2017. The offering is being made only by means of a written prospectus and prospectus supplement that form a part of the registration statement. A preliminary prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus relating to and describing the terms of the offering has been filed with the SEC. A final prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus will be filed with the SEC.
